LAWRENCE, K. T.

Saturday Morning, Oct. 8, 1859.

On the 19th ult., Powers' celebrate statue of the patriot and statesman, Webster, was inaugurated in the city of Box top. On that occasion Edward Everet delivered an oration of singular beauty. power and sublimity. We transfer to our columns his grand peroration :

He sleeps by the multitudinous ocean, which be himself so much resembled, in its mighty movement and its mighty repose; but his monumental form shall henceforward stand sentry at the portals of the capitol; the right hand pointing to that symbol of the Union on which the left reposes, and his imperial gaze directed, with the hope of the country, to the boundless West. In a few short years we, whose eyes have rested on his majestic person, whose ears have drunk in the mu-

Two hundred and twenty-nine year ago, this day, our beloved city received from the General Court of the Colony the highly honored name of Boston. On the ong roll of those whom she has welcomed to her nurturing bosom, is there a name which shines with a brighter lustre than his? Seventy-two years ago, this day, the Constitution of the United States was tendered to the acceptance of the people by George Washington. Who of all the gifted and patriotic of the land, that have adorned the interval, has done more to unfold its principles, assert its purity, and to promote its duration?

Here, then, under the cope of Heaven; here, on this lovely eminence; here, be neath the walls of the capitol of old Massachusetts; here, within the sight of those fair New England villages; here, in the near vicinity of the graves of those who planted the germs of all this palmy growth; here, within the sound of sacred bells, we raise this monument, with loving hearts, to the statesman, the patriot, and heart states the statesman states and states the fellow-citizen, the neighbor, the friend. Long may it guard the approach to these halls of council; long may look out upon a prosperous country; and if days of trial and disaster should come and the arm of flesh should fall, doubt not that the monumental form would descend from its pedestal, to stand in the from rank of the peril, and the bronze lips re peat the cry of the living voice-"Libert and Union, now and forever, one and in separable!"

What is it to be a Public Man? The Boston Courier defines what it is to be a public man, in a truthful and impressive manner, as follows:

One single idea seems to have affected some minds, to which we deem it proper to allude-namely, that Mr. Choate, great lawyer and great orator, was yet not a public man. Their only idea of a pub-lic man is of one who holds office, which is an extremely narrow view of the sub-ject. But it often happens that those who are most successful in gaining office, either by popular election, or in any other mode, gain nothing else, and afterwards are apeedily forgotten. While others, who have attained no "bad eminence" of this sort, are really far more in the public eye, are better known for their sterling qualities, and are more depended on when the so dezen medium size, 10 dozen large size Electric Oil, and draw on us for the amount. Yours public service requires their counsel, than truly. CHARLESS, BLOW & CO. hosts of those who climb to mere station by indirect means, or creep to it through "a low-browed cavernous avenue." In the broadest sense, Mr. Choate was a pub-lic man. His fame, not as a lawyer, which is a more local reputation, but as a most able and brilliant orator upon questions of national policy, and as a patriot of unbending integrity, had passed into the remotest corners of the land; and nearer home, where was the great political movement in which he was not in the front

DOSE invariably stops the chills. It cures every form of the disease, and is the original and ONLY ANTIDOTE FOR MALABIA.

Ask for Dr. Shallenberger's Fever and Ague autidote, and be sure you get PILLS. Read the following testimony: GEO. W. GOODBIGH, Esq., Attorney and Gen-ral Land Agent, now of Granby, Newton county, lo., but at that time a resident of Noesbo Val-cy, K. T., writes as follows:

"I am more than ever of the opinion that no ther con which a completely meets the wants

"I am more than ever of the opinion that no other one medicine secompletely meets the wants of our people as your pills. Last fall, in this region, but one person in my knowledge escaped the Ague. Many had it all through the winter, and continued to have it this spring. I sold eight bottles, all for the treatment of these almost chronic cases, and, it has given in everycase the most perfect satisfaction; and I believe the first does has in every instance stopped the disease.

Of these eight cases, permit me to give you the facts with regard to two of them. The first was that of a girl of filteen years, who had the Ague badl; all last fall—had remittent fever and dumb ague nearly all winter; and to this was superaded monthly irregularity. Knowing this, I hardle vertured to recommend the pills as I wand in ordinary cases, but to my great witenishment and gratification the first does stopped the fever, (remittent) and I supposed the other difficulty has also been removed, as the roses on her before faded cheeks seem to indicate fine health, which otherwise would hardly be the case.

The other case is that of a young mar living in bealth, which otherwise would hardly be the case.

The othercase is that of a young man living in the same family. He had the Fever and Ague bedly, all last fall and winter—so he informs me; the first dose of the pills stopped it, and he has not lost an hour, from his work since he began to take it. He has been splitting rails, hauling them out, and building fence ever since, and makes a first-rate hand at this laborious business. He now says that ten dollars would be a small price for the benefit he has received.

April 28th, 1795. GHO, W. GOODRICH.

We consider the prospect for the sale of your medicine here very flattering, and we shall, doubtless, be able to dispose of much larger quantity the coming season. We have not heard of a single case of failure. In fact, it has nearly thrown out of market every other preparation for the cure of Fever and Ague.
